NORTHFIELD

John Parsons, Brother of Editor Parsons, Died at Hartford, Conn.

Word was received here yesterday of the death of John Parsons, which occurred in Hartford, Conn., Thursday morning. He had been ill for the past few weeks but his condition became serious about two weeks ago. Mr. Parsons was the brother of Frank T. Parsons of this town, and was very well known here as he had spent considerable time with his brother. He was a talented musician and was very well known in the musical circles of Hartford and vicinity. Mr. Parsons was a very congenial man, one who made many friends who always held him in the highest esteem. Mrs. A. M. Castle of Waterbury, Conn., and Frank Parsons, are the last of a large family to survive the deceased. Burial will be in the family lot in Waterbury, Conn. The sympathy of the community is extended Mr. Parsons in the loss of a brother, to whom he was very devoted.

Mrs. Fred J. Davis of Northfield was honored at the Republican state convention Tuesday in Burlington by receiving the election from Washington county to the new Republican state committee. One man and one woman were elected from each county. Henry Holt from Montpelier was elected from Washington county. Following the convention a meeting of the state convention was held at the Van Ness house. The people of Northfield will be pleased to know that Northfield is to be represented on the committee. Mrs. Davis is a woman held in the highest esteem by her many friends in Northfield, and they will be pleased to know that she has received the election to this committee as she will be a woman who will serve to the best of her ability, always having the interest of the people at heart.

Friends of Newell Byam will be sorry to hear that he is critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Morse, in Bethel. He was taken worse with paralysis while in Randolph. Mr. Byam was a resident of Northfield for many years, and has been a frequent visitor here. A very interesting meeting was held at the Nisatin club Wednesday evening, when a large number of the club members and a few invited guests gathered to hear an informal talk by Rev. Dr. C. C. Creagan, pastor of the local Congregational church. Dr. Creagan spoke of the conditions in Turkey, having spent several years there. He was well informed on the subject. He is a very pleasant speaker and he gave a very interesting talk. Everyone present enjoyed the evening. Following the meeting Caterer Charles Pate served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed. Cadet Trombley of Norwich university played several piano solos during the evening which were very well received.

William Jones has moved his family from New Hampshire into Patrick Starr's house on the corner of Wall and Water streets.

MIDDLESEX

Church Notes.

At a Sunday school board meeting held in the church vestry Wednesday evening, it was decided that the Beulah Sunday school would unite with the village Sunday school for a special temperance service on the last Sunday in October. Officers for the village school were elected as follows: Superintendent, W. R. Tillotson; assistant superintendents, Mrs. George Thomas (elementary), Mrs. Swift (missionary) and Mrs. Bigelow (temperance). Mrs. Collins was elected secretary for class supplies, and the recording secretaryship was left to be filled later. A suggestion to permanently unite the work of the Beulah Sunday school with that at the village was discussed but not finally decided. It is proposed that the winter schedule will go into effect after Nov. 1, the public service to be in the afternoon; but whether Sunday school will meet before or after that service has not yet been decided. It was decided that commencing in November, the third Wednesday in each month shall be "Sunday school night," this monthly gathering will be used for demonstration of Sunday school work, lectures, entertainments and social gatherings.

Worship and sermon next Sunday at 9:30, followed by Sunday school.

Ready for the Consequences.

Marjory had been warned by her mother not to play in the road which was very muddy. Several times she disobeyed and at last her mother said, "I'll give you one more chance. If you play in the road again I'll punish you and put you to bed." Half an hour Marjory appeared at the door wet and bedraggled. "Well, mother," she remarked in a tone cheerful resignation, "I've used up my last chance."—Boston Transcript.
